Extension of special quarantine regime

On April 18, 2020, the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Azerbaijan issued a Decree on extention of the special quarantine regime until midnight of 4 May 2020.

According to this Decree, all restrictions, requirements and regimes introduced for the special quarantine during 5-20 April 2020, remain in force.

In the meantime, on 18 April 2020 the Operational Headquarter under the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Azerbaijan announced the work on plan of phased termination of the extended quarantine regime. This plan is expected to be presented to public in the near future.

Furthermore, the announcement states that continuing analysis of the sanitary-epidemiological situation may lead to changes in extended quarantine regime, which means easing or tightening of the imposed restrictions.

Extension of the deadline for submission of tax reports

Due to extension of the special quarantine regime until 4 May 2020, deadline for submission of the following tax reports by taxpayers engaged in restricted areas of business is determined as 4 May 2020:

- Annual reports for profit (income) and property tax for results of 2019
- Monthly reports for February and March 2020
- Quarterly reports for the first quarter of 2020

Additionally, it should be noted that the deadline for issuing a certificate of current tax payments and payment of taxes, including current tax payments, has been extended to 4 May 2020.
